Welcome to CITY OF LAKES

Bhopal, the capital of Madhya Pradesh, popularly known as city of lakes, is a city with rich history and cultural heritage. It is known for its many tourist attractions, historic landmarks, natural beauty, and cultural festivals.

One of the major tourist attractions in Bhopal is the Taj-ul-Masajid, a mosque that is known for its architectural beauty. The mosque, which was built in the 19th century, is a blend of Mughal and Islamic architectural styles, and is adorned with intricate carvings and marble inlay work. Another popular tourist destination is the Bhojpur Temple, a Shiva temple that was built in the 11th century. The temple, which is located about 25 kilometers from Bhopal, is known for its architectural beauty and is a popular pilgrimage site. Other popular attractions in Bhopal include the Bharat Bhavan, an art, culture, and literature museum; the Van Vihar National Park, a wildlife sanctuary that is home to a variety of species; and the Upper Lake, a man-made lake that is a popular spot for boating and picnics.

Bhopal is a city that offers a rich and diverse cultural experience, and is a must-visit destination for tourists interested in exploring the history and culture of India.

PLACES TO VISIT

Sanchi :Sanchi Stupa is a Buddhist complex which is one of the oldest stone structures in India.

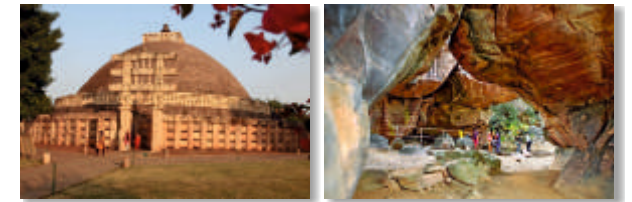

Bhimbetka: Bhimbetka Rock Shelter is a popular archaeological site which intrigues visitors with the evidential painting and artwork belonging to the Paleolithic and Mesolithic periods.

Satpura National Park: Sprawling across an area of 524 square km. Satpura National Park is a perfect place to explore the unique central Indian highland ecosystem.
